Smart Dressers

Young men as, as a general thing, the smartest dressers.

The up-to-the-moment young man is a sort of a lexicon of clothes, style and correctness. He knows what's what and gets it.

But good fit, the newest colors, patterns, etc., aren't enough, for unless that snappy, jaunty appearance—characteristic of our excellent Tailor-Made Clothing is there, it isn't what the young man wants.

Our success in pleasing young men is not just "luck." It's due to our knowledge of what the young man wants and our Ability to Provide It for Him

Then again our prices are always reasonable—Suits at $35, $40, $45 and $50, that will at once appeal to the smartest young dresser.

But we have more than many young men come here for clothes? There's a reason for it.

"The first lot, gentlemen," said Mr. Tattersall, "is a lay silly by Smolensk," etc.

"The first lot, gentlemen," echoed Mr. Matthews in the same tone of voice, "is a lay silly by Smolensko."

The auctioneer looked somewhat annoyed, says the writer of "English Comedians of the Past," but proceeded: "Well, what shall we begin with?"

"Well, what shall we begin with?" replied the echo.

Still endeavoring to conceal his vexation, Mr. Tattersall inquiringly called out:

"One hundred guineas?"
"One hundred guineas?" echoed Matthews.
"Thank you, sir," cried Mr. Tattersall, bringing down the hammer with a bang. "The dilly is yours."

Gladstone and Disraeli.

An odd scene in the house of commons between Disraeli and his great opponent, Gladstone, is recorded in the diary of Sir M. E. Grant Duff, who relates the story as he heard it:

Gladstone was orationing away as to Disraeli's proceedings and said, "This

"Oh! I am very much obliged to the

A Coming Revolt.

'Some day there is going to be a terrible revolt in this country against the boiled shirt. We are not going to wear bounds on our bosoms surmounted by picket fences when the laundryman sells cross and cuts a saw edge on our collars. American manhood is going to rise in its might some day and carefully drop the starch shirt over into the next lot where the tin cans are.

...We are under the domination of social and commercial propriety to such an extent that we do not dare to arise and proclaim our freedom in the name of liberty of person and freedom of conscience. Some day we will wear soft shirts and flowing collars, and the man who wears a starched board on his bosom and a sheet iron ring around his neck will be known for the constricted and artificial one that he really is.

They Didn't Have Time. A short time ago some men were red in putting up telephone poles on land belonging to an old farmer who disliked seeing his wheat trampled down, according to the Register of Great Bend, Kan. The men produced a paper by which said they had leave to put the poles where they pleased. In the Imperial Oxford we have not only given to the women of Canada the most perfect looking and routing range, but have also produced the most economical.

The oven of the ordinary range is raised to a baking temperature by the direct heat of the fire on the sides of the oven. To get the same result in this high temperature to bake or roast, you must be continually going to the fire and adding fuel to it.

As the oven of the Imperial Oxford Range is heated by our patented Diffusive Flow, temperature of the oven remains steady until the baking is done, without the necessity of touching or adding fuel to the fire.

This fact is easily demonstrated. If, when an Imperial Oxford is going, you were to stop the inlet of the fire, in the bottom of the range you would find by the thermometer that the oven was getting colder, and that the food was at a baking temperature you would have to keep pouring the fire and adding more coal just as with ordinary range.

If your dealer doesn't handle the Imperial Oxford, write to us for full catalogue and information as to where you can see it.

Could Britain Be Successfully Invaded?

A discussion is now going on in Britain as to the possible invasion by the latest of the different ways. One is over-sea, and the other under-sea. Whether Britain would be successful invaded overseas, is a question that is answered rather in the affirmative than the negative. Most people place their faith in the latter method, and Mr. Balfour has gone so far as to say that, with the Channel crossed successfully, the invasion of Britain is a very strong likelihood. It would not be possible to get shipping to land a sufficient army in any part of Britain to be able to reach London. This is putting the security and immunity of Britain in a very strong light, and placing great faith in the defence provided by the "invulnerable" Channel. It is not taken into account that the British navy is made up of a few old-fashioned sailing ships, and that the British navy is not a match for the German navy. Only with the double decker British battleships could Britain successfully defend itself.

The under-sea invasion is what some people see as a possibility of danger from the prospect of a tunnel under the Straits of Dover, which would be a great advantage to the British navy. Some people think that the British navy is not a match for the German navy. Only with the double decker British battleships could Britain successfully defend itself.

Our miners and heartiest sympathies are hereby extended to any fair young creature who were last night caught out in the weather with nothing to protect them from the rain but a pocket-book and a handkerchief. The weather is so bad that some of those military crones that attract the lightning.

And just say it may be started that some man, young or old, is not so well as he seems in distress—particularly a lady. Some young fellows on Front street last night needed some help, and some of our smartest rascals about town who, we are sure, were not so well as they seemed.

Our mutual friend, Rev. Mr. Hecox, last night said farewell to the people to whom he has faithfully served for more than four years. He now leaves Belleville, carrying with him a large number of people who are his high-minded, and broad-minded friends. We are very sorry to see Rev. Mr. Hecox go, but we are glad to see him go. He will surely have a very successful career in his new field.

Smart Dressers

Young men are, as a general thing, the smartest dressers.

The up-to-the-moment young man is a sort of a lexicon of clothes, style and correctness. He knows what's what and gets it.

But good fit, the newest colors, patterns, etc., aren't enough, for unless that snappy, jaunty appearance—characteristic of our excellent Tailor-Made Clothing is there, it isn't what the young man wants.

Our success in pleasing young men is not just "luck." It's due to our knowledge of what the young man wants and our

Ability to Provide It for Him

Then again our prices are always reasonable. Suits at $30, $25, $10, $12 and $15. That will at once appeal to the swell young man.

Did you ever notice how many young men come here for clothes? There's a reason for it.

Red Flag of Revolution Floats From Masthead of Black Sea Battleship.

Russian Sailors Mutiny, Kill Officers of the Kaiser Potemkin, and Seize Most Powerful Battleship of Russia's Black Sea Fleet.
—Main Squadron Expected at Once and a Naval Battle in Russia's Civil War is in Prospect.

Odesa, June 28.—The red flag of revolution is hoisted on the masthead of the Kaiser Potemkin, Russia's most powerful battleship in the Black Sea, which now flies in the name of revolution. The sailors have seized the ship and have killed the officers and crew members who were loyal to the government.

First Wireless Message.
Helsingfors, June 28.—The first communication by wireless telegraph from the Kaiser Potemkin was received at the station here at 10:30 p.m. The message was in Russian and was a declaration of war against the government.

Church Burned.
Waterford, June 28.—The Baptist church of this village was burned down yesterday morning. The fire started in the kitchen and spread to the main body of the church.

The sailors were armed with revolvers and rifles and were in full control of the ship. They had killed the captain and several other officers.

The main squadron of the Black Sea fleet, consisting of the battleships George Potemkin, Tsesaritsa, and others, is expected to arrive at Odesa in a few days. It is believed that a naval battle will take place between the two fleets.

The mutiny arose from the abhorrent conditions on board the ship. The sailors were overworked and underpaid, and they were dissatisfied with the officers.

The mutiny of the Kaiser Potemkin is a serious event in the history of the Russian navy. It is the first time that sailors have seized a battleship in Russia.

The mutiny is a result of the long-standing grievances of the sailors. They have been demanding better pay and conditions for years.

The mutiny has caused a great deal of concern in the government. It is feared that other ships in the fleet may also be affected.

The mutiny is a serious threat to the Russian navy. It is hoped that the government will take steps to improve the conditions of the sailors.

RUNAWAY CAR IN GUELPH.

Several Excursions to the Ontario Agricultural College Injured.
Guelph, June 28.—The first accident that has ever occurred on the inter-railway during the many excursions that have been held to the Ontario Agricultural College happened about noon yesterday on the arrival of the farmers' excursion from West Huron. A street car was derailed on the top of the grade on the line running through the city.

A run was made for the car called a crash, and the car was derailed on the top of the grade on the line running through the city.

There were over a dozen injured, four of whom were taken to the General Hospital. All their injuries are slight, except one case in the car was broken, and the rear end smashed by the collision. Several were thrown out and others jumped. The other occupants of the car suffered from the shock and cuts from the glass. It is stated that one of the passengers broke the brake and let the car loose.

Among those who were severely injured were: Mr. and Mrs. J. Robinson, Shaw's, the former having had a head crushed and suffering from concussion of the brain, his leg and hand injured to the bone. J. Taylor, Shaw's, was crushed. D. Cameron, Shaw's, was crushed. D. Cameron, Shaw's, was crushed. D. Cameron, Shaw's, was crushed.

MILKMEAD USED "FREZZIE"

Brought in at Hardware Store—Didn't Know It Was Poison.
Brimford, June 28.—At last light has been thrown on the mysterious death of Jerry Milkmead who brought before the court of Health and upon a serious examination by the city coroner as soon concluded that he was killed by it.

It was deemed that the use of the Frezzie had been so common in the city that it was not necessary to issue a warning. It is believed that the Frezzie was used in the United States, compared with the Frezzie which was used in the city.

The result of the meeting has been a great deal of interest in the Frezzie. The Frezzie is a small, round, black object which has been used in the city for many years.

Smart Dressers

Young men are, as a general thing, the smartest dressers.

The up-to-the-moment young man is a sort of a lexicon of clothes, style and correctness. He knows what's what and gets it.

But good fit, the newest colors, patterns, etc., aren't enough, for unless that snappy, jaunty appearance—characteristic of our excellent Tailor-Made Clothing is there, it isn't what the young man wants.

Our success in pleasing young men is not just "luck." It's due to our knowledge of what the young man wants and our Ability to Provide It for Him

Then again our prices are always reasonable—Suits at $35, $30, $25, $20 and $15, that will at once appeal to the smart young fellow.

Did you ever notice how many young men come here for clothes? There's a reason for it.

A black and white illustration of a man in a suit and hat standing in front of a building entrance. The entrance is labeled 'BANKERS'. The man is standing with his hands on his hips, looking towards the viewer. The illustration is in a classic, somewhat stylized manner, typical of early 20th-century advertising.
